

HOOVER - warren

Chief Justice Warren, leading a majority of the Court in opinions bent in the direction of creeping Socialism, seems determined to leach down one of the two governmental agencies in which the average American still has confidence of a "fair shake" — the Grand Jury System and the FBI.

His criticism of the FBI was not as a part of a plan of security for our government, but definitive finger-pointing at the Agency.

Mr. Warren has no intention of paying heed to other than his self-appointed GREAT-I-AM, but here's an opinion shared by JURISTS of learning and note — Chief Justice of the several State Supreme Courts:

Mr. Warren and his "modern-thinking" associates may well accept a majority of whatever blame there was outside the brain of Oswald for the "confused state of mind" of the American public, because of their decisions that, as they admit, have no legal precedent.

It's "for Mr. Hoover," with a challenge that his record of fair Americanism far exceeds the record of the Chief Justice.

We hope the President of the US finds the "Texas Guis" to stand by his most tried-and-true Public Servant — J. Edgar Hoover — and the FBI.

Just send your letters to Santa, Box 855, Belle Glade. Write early though, because the postmaster says the mails are already heavy.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

TODAY . . . and 50 YEARS AGO — Photo in background is the wedding picture of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Flehs, Sr., who are pictured as they cut another cake on their Golden Wedding Anniversary November 26.

Thanksgiving was a really happy day for Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Flehs, Sr., who celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary with an open house attended by three of their four living children and their families, and a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Flehs, Sr., were married in the Methodist Church November 26, 1914, in the Town of Wein, Wisconsin and spent their first ten years there.

In 1924 they moved to Grotton, South Dakota, where Mr. Flehs continued farming. They spent several winters in Florida before moving here from North Dakota to make their home. Now retired, Mr. Flehs worked for ten years with Everglades Experiment Station here.

Both enjoy excellent health and recently returned from a five week stay with their children in South Dakota, where Mr. Flehs enjoyed several hunting parties in the Dakotas and Montana. An ardent hunter, Mr. Flehs has hunted annually to his home ground for bear and pheasant hunting.

"Grandma, described by her children as 'all wrapped up in her children and grandchildren,' enjoyed a good family visit.

"You Can't Fail Peace Corps Corp Test"

For the first time in history the Peace Corps is giving its national "Peace Corps Test" a week day—Monday, December 1. The usual test on Saturday in the morning is impossible because of the Christmas rush at the post offices where it is sent.

The next best available date happens to fall on Pearl Harbor Day, that infamous day 23 years off to war, will this year be administered by thousands of Americans offering two years of their life in the cause of Peace.

The non-competitive aptitude test will take about one and a half hours, from the time you walk in the door. You should bring a completed Peace Corps Test application form (you may not yet have filled one). The General Aptitude Test is timed exactly half an hour. The same time is a sat on the "General Language Aptitude Test." The latter gives the Peace Corps a check on your aptitude in one or more languages. (You can't even know if you speak a foreign language). If you claim a knowledge of French or Spanish, you will be asked to say a few words in or a language achievement test.

If you are an American citizen over 18, you are eligible to take the test. If you are disabled, you are eligible for an aptitude test but you may have no dependent under 18. A college degree is not required.

You can't fail the Test. The Peace Corps evaluates your test scores, your Questionnaire and your character references all together. If the results qualify you to complete the intensive training program and to serve as a Peace Corps Volunteer, you will be invited.

The next cycle of Peace Corps training starts in February—and there is still time if you take the December 1st Test. You may apply for 1965 as well as place in the summer and it is certainly not too soon to apply for that. Questionnaires are available at most post offices and college placement offices or by writing the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

If you are an American citizen over 18, you are eligible to take the test. If you are disabled, you are eligible for an aptitude test but you may have no dependent under 18. A college degree is not required.

"Butch" Davis Selected By Two Pro Leagues

Marvin "Butch" Davis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Davis, of South Bay, has the distinction of having been picked by both the National Football League and the American Football League to play professional football. The Los Angeles Rams of the National League selected Davis, and the Denver Broncos of the American League, Davis was third choice for the Broncos.

Butch is a junior at the University of Wichita, Wichita, Kansas. He was picked last year as the Missouri Valley Lineman.

During his school years, he has quite a record for him self. He was captain of the football team his senior year, and also played in the North-South game, in the starting line-up. He also made the All Suncoast Conference, while in High School. He was voted the Suncoast's "most feared" lineman, by a pool of coaches. He stands 6 ft. 3 inches tall, and high school his weight was 225 pounds.

During his senior year, the following was written about him, "playing offensive end, he was the unanimous choice of the Suncoast Conference for two years. As an end, Davis caught 8 passes for 96 yards and one touchdown, and carried on end around plays 14 times for 114.8 yards—an average of 8.2 yards per try. Davis combined size with great reaction and blocked 9 punts and averaged 13 unassisted tackles per game."

Mrs. Davis says: "we are very proud of Butch being selected by both Leagues, as a player and for him to be selected. As yet, he has not decided which offer he will accept." The following is a portion of Marvin's letter to his son:

Nothing Is Hidden That Shall Not Be Revealed

By Lewis Llewellyn

"All things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with Whom we have to do."

Hiding from God is the most profitless endeavor imaginable. Doomed to failure from the start, it results in deceiving only the one who is trying to escape detection of his deeds.

Recently in Los Angeles a bank robber was surprised to find that the police and bank officials had a photograph of him, taken as he was walking out of the bank with the loot. He was quickly captured because the bank to guard against just such an occurrence, had placed a camera where it could record not only the fact of the robbery but also the appearance of the robber.

Both our good deeds and our evil actions are open to God. We know what we have hidden from other eyes.

Jesus said, "There is nothing covered that shall not be revealed."

Though we may hide from men's eyes for a long time, perhaps forever, what we have done, the Bible tells us that they are coming a day when all, small and great, will stand before God and will be judged, every man according to his works.

Even though God knows our hidden deeds and our thoughts, He still loves us.

On one occasion, some prominent citizens of Jaffa took to Jesus a woman who was guilty, they said, of committing adultery. The legal penalty for the offense was stoning to death. They asked Jesus for His judgement.

Jesus knew their hearts, as well as the heart of the woman. Stooping down, he began to write with his finger in the sand, as he said, "Let him that is without sin cast the first stone."

What He wrote is not recorded but it is conjectured that He may have written the names of some of the sins of which He knew those men were guilty. Soon the men walked away, one by one, without throwing a single stone at the guilty woman.

Then Jesus lifted Himself up and said to her, "Doth no man condemn thee? . . . Neither do I condemn thee. Go and sin no more."

He knows all about us, but He still loves us.

We can't hide from God, but He has promised mercy to all who come to Him for forgiveness and salvation.

Kissimmee-Okeechobee Continuous Waterway Under Construction

ANWITME TIL XMAS — Sandbars and shoals caused by low water conditions in the Kissimmee River have created navigation difficulties at several locations, and boaters should use caution planning trips between Lake Okeechobee and Lake Kissimmee.

The narrow crooked river is being widened, deepened, and straightened as part of a $35-million program to provide year round water control in a five-county area of central Florida. But the program is only partially completed.

The shoals are located in sections of the river that have not been improved.

No navigation problems exist in the first 18 miles of the Kissimmee River, flowing north from Lake Okeechobee. But north of that point — between U.S. Highway 98 and State Road 80 (near Lake Kissimmee) — there are several shoals where navigation is now difficult even for small fishing boats.

Ed Dail, FCD Executive Director, stressed that the navigation problems will be corrected when the river is widened, straightened, completed, and that current difficulties (due to low water) are to be expected in the unimproved section of the river during the interim period of construction.

By 1969 it is expected that the entire river will be transformed into a 56-mile canal permitting year-round navigation between Lake Okeechobee and Lake Kissimmee. The locks on the River (four of them already completed) are designed to pass boats of six foot draft.

Further to the north, in the Upper Kissimmee River Basin, water levels are at or near desired stages in five principal lakes, as a result of completion of a series of canals and two major spillway structures (one of them equipped with a navigation lock).

In this chain-of-lakes area a 39-mile-long waterway is now open to navigation, permitting boats to travel from FCD spillway S-65 (at State Road 60) north through Lakes Kissimmee, Hatchet, Cypress and Tohopekaliga to the city of Kissimmee.

When improvements are completed in the main stem of the Kissimmee River, a 97-mile waterway will be open year-round north of Lake Okeechobee.

Panish Laundry Blues

Do you have laundry "blues"? One way to banish these "blues" is to set up an efficient laundry center.

Laundry centers are most convenient when they are centrally located in the house, say home economists with the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station. Locate your center in a first-floor area to avoid unnecessary steps in carrying soiled clothes from one part of the house to another.

A first-class laundry center should include a sink, where you can do pre-laundering treatments, an adequate cabinet space for storing laundry supplies, in addition to a good washer and dryer.

Provide some storage space for accumulated soiled clothing for the unsoiled clothes. You also need a table or counter space for folding clothes as you remove them from the dryer.

Your ironing board should be sturdy and adjustable in height. Be sure that it has firm padding with a clean, tight cover that won't shift around while you're ironing.

Keep the sole plate of your iron clean. If you use a cord caddy, it will lighten your ironing job.

Don't use an extension cord ironing, unless you get a heavy-duty type instead of one designed for lamps. Using an ordinary lamp-type cord creates a fire hazard, and the iron will heat slowly. It's a good idea to get an extra-long cord made for the iron to make long reaching possible.

Use Zip Code To Speed Xmas Delivery

The Christmas "rush" brings a very old quote to mind: "Neither snow nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds." This was said by the Greek historian, Herodotus in the Fifth Century B. C. but it still is true of the postal service.

However, Postmaster Rosa A. Nash recently added a thought: "While it is true that bad weather doesn't stop the mails, it certainly can slow them down."

She mentioned that planes and trucks are slowed, switchbacks on railroad tracks can freeze up. Trucks must move more slowly and cautiously over highways. And, in many places, mailmen might wish for the warmth of a log fire. Even the impish Mr. ZIP can't assure next-day delivery under these conditions.

"Why," you may ask, "does the postmaster bring this up?"

"Simply to let people know that there is a factor that we just can't control, the weather," Postmaster Nash said. "It is important that people mailing Christmas cards and gifts make every effort to shop early and mail early to assure on-time delivery. This is especially true during the Christmas rush when an ever increasing avalanche of mail moves through the postal system."

The Post Office Dept. has several new tools to use in this year's mail service. The most important is the new ZIP code and, of course, the switch to the Zoning Improvement Plan (ZIP). Postmas or Nash is urging everyone to use the 5 digit numbers because in most cases, it will save a number of times a piece of mail just be handled. This saves time, labor and money.

She suggests that even if you don't know the code for the addresses of the people to whom you're sending cards and gifts, you should call the post office on your local address. And you should record in codes from the return address of those who are writing to you.

During the Christmas mail is harder to handle and the local workers who work so diligently during this period deserve all the cooperation they can get.

The postmaster said that shopping early, mailing early and using ZIP Codes will really put ZIP into your Christmas savings and give your mailman a hand too. Belle Glade's ZIP code is 33430.

The Seminole troop was awarded the honor banner to use with their patrol flag, which awarded a basis of faith, participating, spirit and court skills. "Mr. Hoover To Enforcement"

ATHEISTIC COMMUNISM and the lawless underworld are not the only threats to the safety and welfare of our great nation. Enemies of freedom come under many guises.

Our society today is in a great state of unrest. Many citizens are confused and troubled. For the first time, some are confronted with issues and decisions relating to the rights and dignity of their fellow countrymen, problems which heretofore they had skirted or ignored.

We have in our midst hate-mongers, bigots, and riotous agitators, many of whom are at opposite poles philosophically but who spew similar doctrines of prejudice and intolerance. They exploit hate and fear for personal gain and self-aggrandizement. They distort facts, spread rumors, and pit one element of our people against another. Theirs is a dogma of intimidation and terror.

Almost every community of our land is infested with these opportunists, either organized or "free lance." They wage orderly pursuit of decency and morality. Surrounded with dupes and miscreants, these merchants of hate and malice promote graft and strife. There is no limit to their outrageous deeds short of death. In the wake of their defiance of law and order lie the trampled rights of their fellow men.

Law enforcement, as a profession dedicated to preserving America's God-given heritage, is often caught in the crossfire of criticism and distrust coming from the opposing forces which clash on the issues involved. In each instance, our actions must be exemplary. We must not deviate from the solid principles and high traditions of our profession. We must not be compromised nor intimidated. We must demonstrate that the freedoms Americans cherish so highly are strengthened whenever law enforcement asserts itself not only against crime and subversion but also against any invasion upon the rights and dignity of all the people.

Fortunately, the overwhelming majority of our citizens deplore rabbble-rousing and mob action. They look to and abide by our laws and constitutional processes for guidance and redress of grievances. They know that our Nation's hopes rest on truth, justice, and individual dignity, not on discrimination, persecution, and mob rule.

As Americans, we have within our grasp the ideals which were but visions to our Founding Fathers — freedom under God with liberty and justice for all. We must not be satisfied merely to have these ideals exist. We must assure that they flourish — generation after generation — so all the world will know that America stands for brotherhood among all men.

J. Edgar Hoover

"A Majority Once Knew The World Was Flat"

The Supreme Court decision holding that all state legislatures — the upper as well as the lower houses — must be apportioned solely on the basis of population hit the states like a bombshell. And it is going to keep on exploding for a long time to come.

For all of our history, it has been common for the states to apportion their House of Representatives on a population basis and their Senates on a geographical basis, such as by counties. In this they have simply followed the federal system, as laid down in the Constitution, in which each member of the lower house represents about the same number of constituents, while every state is allowed two Senators without regard to population.

Unless this court decision is negated — and a constitutional amendment, apparently, is the only way to do that — the big centers of population will almost completely dominate state government, at the expense of the rural areas and rural people. Their problems and needs, which often are different from those of the cities, will be submerged and their voices largely stilled. A braking power on the excesses of numerical majorities will be lost.

The argument for this revolutionary reapportionment is that the majority should rule. Washington columnist Patrick Fox had something impressive to say about this: "If a simple majority were always right, there would be no problem in letting it vote its way immediately on everything.

"But a majority once knew the world was flat. A majority opposed the American revolution."

Creator Of Understanding

As we all know, the jet age has shrunk the globe. Now we can go almost anywhere in the world in a day or less. And we can go in complete comfort, surging along at speeds which would have seemed the dream of wild imagination not so long ago.

This, the experts tell us, is only the beginning. Before long, as time is measured, supersonic travel will cross from this country to Europe in something like two hours. There are technological problems involved — notably, the sonic "boom" created by faster-than-sound-flight — but they will be solved.

The tourist, student, the businessman — all who move about the world for whatever reason — are the beneficiaries of all this. But there is much more to the picture. As the number of page travel increases, ignorance of the traditions, desires and attitudes of other peoples diminishes. Suspicions are dispelled by new international friendships. And so, little by little, as water wears away stone — we may confidently expect a release of tension and a broader and sounder basis on which to build true world peace.

The airplane has often been an instrument of terrible destruction. But now its main role, in the international sphere, is that of a creator of understanding. And that is a great role indeed.

The Orient Can Be Most Interesting

Two Belle Glade ladies, Ruth Wedgwood and Edith Freedman were privileged to make a tour of the Orient this summer, and their impressions, we believe, are very interesting. Below we offer this report, as of interest to the Orientals and descriptive report.

Jr. Col Counselor's Story Published

Robert D. Fuerst, Evening Counselor at Palm Beach Junior College has been notified that his article "Fresh Hope for the Maladjusted" has been published in the November issue of "Medical Times," a journal of primary interest to the family physician. It has a circulation of 45,000.

Fuerst said that the article was more or less a satire on the style of writing used in some professional journals in reporting studies of trivial subjects. "It is more a journal article by medical doctors and those which are written primarily for reading audience."

Fuerst, who holds a Master's Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling, has also contributed articles to Air Force Magazine, Foreign Service, as well as department publication, and to Field and Stream.

In 1957 his first book, "The Typhoon-Hurricane Story," was published. When asked if it was a best seller, Fuerst quipped, "It wasn't a runaway best seller, but I highly recommend it as an ideal Christmas gift and especially in lots of twelve or so."

Prior to coming to Palm Beach Junior College, Fuerst served twenty years in the Air Force as a pilot, weatherman, public relations officers and a communications specialist.

Shortly after World War II, he and two friends bought a girls finishing school in Syracuse, N.Y. but after a year he was recalled to active military duty.

He has taught at Davis and Elkins College, Elkins, West Virginia, and later studied rehabilitation counseling at the University of Florida for a Master's.

While in Florida he interned in counseling and psychotherapy, both educational and vocational. He is presently working on a doctorate degree.

Fuerst's hobbies include collecting rare stamps of China and writing. Besides his book and contributions to periodicals he has also written several plays. He is married and has two daughters, Vicki, the younger, is a student at Lake Worth Junior High School, and Valerie, a sophomore at Vassar.

TE Association's Work

1. EDUCATION — of the public, the student, the professional person, and the patient.

2. CASE DETECTION — helping to find cases in cooperation with the County Health Department through use of the mobile x-ray unit and tuber bacilli surveys.

3. SERVICE TO TB PATIENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES — counseling families where TB has struck, seeing that their needs are met.

4. RESEARCH — in the hope that a better method of diagnosis, an effective vaccine developed; easier and quicker ways to diagnose TB, and many other baffling problems can be solved.

CHRISTMAS SEALS PROVIDE THE SOLE INCOME OF THE TB ASSOCIATION'S year-round work. It is an all-year appeal — no personal solicitor — no payroll deduction — no in-plant solicitation — only Christmas Seals by mail.

Eighty per cent of every Christmas Seal dollar remains in Palm Beach County; 13 percent goes to the state Association, and 9 percent supports the program of the National Tuberculosis Association.

EVERY CONTRIBUTION — LARGE OR SMALL — IS IMPORTANT. This may well be the most critical Christmas Seal Campaign in history. Unless the campaign is successful, the TB Association will not be able to do its part to help the Health Department make the all-out effort with the mobile x-ray unit to find every case of tuberculosis in Palm Beach County.

ATHEITY AND COMPATENCY may well be the human attributes which will allow tuberculosis to become rampant again in these United States — the people in Palm Beach County had better get the ball!

Water Resource Improvements Cost Predicted To Be 2 Billion By '70

Luther Jones, Chairman of the Water Resources and Water Control Committee of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce made his report to the full Chamber in Jacksonville on Tuesday.

Mr. Jones asked his hearers when they return home to ask not "Do We Have a Water Problem?" but "WHAT is our water problem?" assuring them that each nook and corner of the State has its problem.

The following is his report: Indicative of the fruits of Florida's planned water control program is the fact that the announcement of a long-term joint venture by Wall Street land ownership and the world-famous King Ranch of Texas on 30,000 acres of land in southwest Palm Beach County.

King Ranch's historical respect for fresh water and flood control is given as the dominating inducement.

C & SF FCD, since '48 been the pioneer in pattern-vehicle in conservation and control of water, soil and wildlife for man's health, income and recreational enjoyment of the great outdoors. The C & SF's work is more bountifully supplied with fresh water than any other state.

Salt intrusion and too much water at times, have found faults for control or correction.

Two large water resources control districts are underway in Florida; the C & SF FCD encompassing 18,431 square miles in Broward, Dade and 40% complete; returns and Southwest, or Four Rivers Project covering 6,700 square miles in 15 counties. When completed, the two will be an investment of $651,000,000.

There are now 14 deep saltwater ports in Florida, representing $229,000,000 investment; 19 shallow draft harbors approximate $20 million.

Commercial waterways on the east and west coasts, river chan-cross-state barge canals totaling 1,064 miles cost $313,090,000.

A by-product of commercial waterways is their use by recreational craft while there are numerous single-purpose waterways, bringing the total boating waterways to 4,411 miles for recreational craft.

Numerous other projects are under study, such as the Sanibel-Canaveral Canal, the reactivation of the Suwanee improvement, intercoastal waterway from the Caloosahatchie to Tamiami, St. Marks and Canaveral, the east coast Inland Waterway from Jacksonville through Canaveral and Miami to Key West; the Kissimmee waterway to Lake Okeechobee.

Underway, and completion nearly needed, are the North Florida Barge Canal and the Okeechobee Waterway.

TOO LITTLE fresh water WITHIN THE STATE, it is agreed, is a basic problem facing every nook and corner of Florida. This is for man's personal consumption and for EXISTING industry, if expansion is to continue.

The securing of land for impounding or storage areas anticipates the spending of $50 million NOW. Delay will add greatly to these costs.

Decentralization, particularized authority for control of water between state agencies and between the State and National bodies is a legislative and judicial problem of prime importance.

Additional revisions and new provisions within the ten years necessary to complete presently authorized items, will likely average $50 million annually, to bring Florida's spending on water resources to TWO BILLION by '74.

Florida's industry expansion and population growth for the next ten years demands continuous diligence in water resource management in addition to the PREVENTION of the funeral of

gal. That also means insurance protection for his business, home and contents, liability and possibly an educational policy for each of the children.

Authors Autograph Books For School

"Greetings from Pearl S. Buck" is the inscription on the book THE GOOD EARTH, a copy of which Mrs. Bert Ward autographed for the students at Belle Glade and other schools in the county. Another book which was autographed is THE MAN — Jesse Stuart. His inscription reads: "To the students of Belle Glade High School with greetings and best wishes." These were obtained for the schools by Mrs. Esther Mayfield, English teacher for the county. Mrs. Bert Ward had an interview with Mrs. Buck during which she autographed copies of THE GOOD EARTH. Mrs. Mayfield wrote to Jesse Stuart for the copy of the book which he autographed.

Pandemonium and rejoicing in the nation. Parents would pull their hair and despair for their future. Aside from that the younger set would have a blast! Our leader would support the following platform:

- More holidays.
- Less homework.
- At least $15 a week allowance for everyone.
- A car for every teen.
- Socks in the White House.
- The United States would buy the Beatles.
- Coke in the water fountains.
- Movies shown every day at lunch.
- Mandatory air condition in every classroom.
- The end of the school year would be in March.

No man Is An Island

No man is an island — no man stands alone. This is an oft-quoted statement and is very controversial. Some believe it to be false, but I must agree with that.

Many persons feel themselves to be alone — a rebel — and tell themselves that they prefer it that way. This type of person has encased himself in a hard shell, and will not let anyone pronouns to enter. They give nothing of themselves and allow no one to enter into their mental solitude.

The only way that can pierce this shell is love. Kindness, love through love, can little by little, wear away the coatings of suspicion, distrust, and unfriendliness.

When other methods fail to get you anywhere with this type of person, try love.

I Envy Todays Teens,

...Lady Bird Johnson

Reporting on Lady Bird Johnson's feelings about youth, INGENUE MAGAZINE tells why she believes that they are living in the most important period of their life and mankind's in the history of the world. Mrs. Johnson says that our achievements in the technological field add to the challenge and adventure of our times. "We've learned to provide sufficient food, clothing and shelter with a minimum of time and energy, but we still have to learn how to get along together. Technology can be the aid — but it is still the human machine — the mind and the heart of the individual which spurs success and failure."

What can you do — to revamp the cities? To how away at the twenty percent who still live in poverty and ignorance?

To turn automation from beast into blessing? To master the most important art of all — human understanding? Mrs. Johnson joins in the chorus of experts telling youth that education is the only answer! "We need more scientists, more doctors, more engineers, more specially trained postgraduates, more highly skilled and educated workers."

As for personal reward, the First Lady tells teenagers to find somewhere along the way a tool or skill that they enjoy and are reasonably good at — and can exchange for a paycheck.

"There is nothing better than the feeling of independence no joy more satisfying than that of a job well done — whether expanding the minds of seventh graders, hunting for an unknown germ in a lab, or typing an important Humanities term paper. It is very important to human dignity and self-reliance to be able to trade a skill for a paycheck."

"Whatever you do," says Mrs. Johnson, "let your reach exceed your grasp, always and everywhere."

"And make your little plot in this world — whether it is in Alaska, Texas, or Tangier greener because your work to get there. All people have dreams; dreams and images of the person they would like to be and the world they would like to live in. In an age when so much is possible I hope you will hold on to your dreams and work to make them come true."

universities over the Thanksgiving

Examination bloopers have brightened many a long dreary hour at grading time for teachers. Here are some of the more classic ones over the years.

Christians are only allowed one wife. This is called monogamy.

It is mud with the juice squeezed out.

Some children decided to open up their secrets. The following are a few that were received.

I want to be a biologist, and the first bug I'd like to dissect is myself.

My secret is that my dad hates to drink beer, and what makes it a secret is that he works for the Regal Pale brewery.

Mr. Linkletter: "Where is the best place to live over the years?

Child's reply: "Under the hot sun."

Mr. Linkletter: "What's your dog's name?"

Child: "Shorty."

Mr. Linkletter: "What kind of Dog is Shorty?"

Child: "He's a latory re-

Six-year old Steven is catch-what he'd do if a girl chased him, and he said he'd run.

Mr. Linkletter: "But if you still run?"

Steve: "Yes, but not too fast!"

Mr. Linkletter: "If you could be a character in a story, who would you be?"

Steve: "Davy Crockett!"

Mr. Linkletter: "What does his story teach you?"

Young Boy: "Stay away from the Alamo."

The Purpose Of School

Some people act as if they do tell information about your educational background: the number of years you spent in school; just what is the purpose of school? I will attempt to give you my idea of the purpose of school.

School helps a young person develop his mind, body, and all the muscles of his personality. It helps him to gain maturity and a better understanding of people as well as a sense of personal responsibility.

Not only does your education help you become a better understanding person and help make your life more interesting, but it can also play an important role in your success as a worker.

A question is, is education that lights your future. The lack of an education will lead to unemployment. No matter where you apply for a job, the application blank is sure to request details probably said, "What is the use of school? My parents did not have a high school education." The student who thinks this way has a one track mind. He should realize that his parents probably did not get an education, but did not have the opportunity to do so as he has today.

Employers prefer workers who have a good education. It is much easier for a high school graduate to get a job than a non-graduate. A good education helps you to become a better citizen. During your school years you have an opportunity to prepare to be the kind of citizen who is a good member of a community.

Your purpose of school should be to get an education to enlighten your future. Without an education, life is very dull. Some students who do not like school

Sophomore Class Organized

The first meeting of the sophomore class was held Thursday, November 19, 1964. Acting Co-Chairmen were Willie Quinn and Mary Freeman, with the assistance of Mr. Charles McCurdy, our principal. After officers were elected, President Quinn took over the meeting.

Suggestions were made on how often a meeting was to be held. It was agreed upon that we, the members of the class, should meet once a month. It was decided that we should bring $1 per week as dues from now until our senior year. The money obtained will be used to cover most of the expenses of sending a gift to gift to school. Proms and other projects of the future.

The goal of the sophomore class is to eliminate any discipline problems that might occur in the class and to raise the scholastic average of the class members on a whole.

Rumors: A Type Of Propaganda

Propaganda is, in essence, believing or rather telling something without fact. Have you ever believed in propaganda? Why of course not! I'd like to challenge your mind on this issue.

What are Rumors? It can be safely said that a Rumor is a type of propaganda. How often have you almost lost a friend because of a Rumor. Rumors spread like a contagious disease. It's surprising to me in a matter of hours and does so thoroughly.

Are you the accuser or the accused? Do you become heated up at once over a rumor? Why not wait and think through the rumor and if it isn't the truth, forget it. Don't let a rumor damage your friendship because of what you said, I said, he said, she said, that they said? Well, do you?

Why not be like Newton, Galileo, Ben Franklin, and the others of their field, believe nothing without true facts.

Now, are you sure you don't believe in propaganda? Are you? —Willie Benjamin

I Wonder . . .

Girls, what would Lake Shore High be if all boys?

Smiled like Leonard Jackson and like James Styles and Andrew Foster.

Looked like Noel Hamilton. Had hair like Archie Allen. Dressed like Chester Ellison and Leonard Wimberly.

Bobcats Nip Blanche Ely 13-12

N. H. A. Attend District Meeting

The Lake Shore High "Bobcats" nipped Blanche Ely of Pompano Beach, Florida, No. 20, 1964, 13-12.

The kick-off was at 8:15 p.m. The first score followed a short yard pass by Hayes and Brown. The tally was made by quarterback Charles Haynes on a fullback stall. The point after the touchdown was carried over by Willie Benjamin on a pass from Hayes. The extra point attempt was no good.

At half time, Lake Shore had a seven to six lead over Blanche Ely.

During the last period of the game, Ronald Cooke grabbed a nice pass from their quarterback and made the final Lake Shore tally. Lake Shore Ely scored and brought the scoring of both teams to a climax.

During the last two minutes of play, linebacker Joe Sheely picked off a Blanche Ely pass and stopped their final drive which enabled them to score.

The Seniors Lead

What will we say to the underclassmen? If you are to do what we have done—drive for the school, then you will be successful.

When the day has come for you to leave, your hands will be high and your brains will be mighty.

The underclassmen are our followers. Whether we know it or not, they have followed us.

Now, after us, whether we are either good or bad examples, it is up to us to decide whether the future graduates of Lake Shore will be better or worse.

It is up to us to start the improvement now. It is now our time to exercise leadership.

To the underclassmen, "and here goes now." Be not merely good, be good for something.

Do not enter into the world of tomorrow with prejudices, but enter the world of tomorrow, love, and a desire to better yourself. The quest of education is better and the fruit is sweet.

In Appreciation

Of Me

I love the paper; I think it's swell. On that certain morning I run pell-mell To the paper stand.

And read each line. The stories and columns I think are fine.

I laugh at the jokes I read, real good, the lads; I take up the tabs.

When I praise the paper, I scorn those who laugh. I'm really most loyal—

I'm on the staff.

On Saturday, November 21, the New Homemakers of Lake Shore High, along with their advisors, attended the N. H. A. District meeting at Attucks High School, Hollywood, Florida. At 7:00 a.m. the group boarded a charter bus. They arrived in Hollywood at 8:15 a.m.

The meeting began at 8:30 a.m. and was conducted by the officers. After the devotional exercise and greetings, they proceeded as planned.

The campaign speeches were next, and we are proud to say that Shirley Walker, one of our students, was elected District IX President for 1964-65.

After the assembly, the N. H. A.'s were asked to assemble outside for a group picture. A record hop and swimming session were the social events of the day.

We left Hollywood at 2:30 p.m. and arrived in Belle Glade at 3:45 p.m. The meeting was an enjoyable day.
